

AHSAA Officials' Fees <<<Click to see website

Officiating fees should be agreed upon by negotiations between the local officials association and the school. The AHSAA highly recommends that joint responsibility be assumed in the negotiations. The accomplishment of any such agreement can be complete only when the fee or fees agreed upon are within the ability of the school to pay and are also commensurate with the services rendered. Any agreed-upon fees must be within the maximum amount the schools are allowed to pay by the AHSAA Maximum Fee Schedule.

All officials understand that they are independent contractors officiating for the schools serviced by their local associations and the AHSAA. They agree when they register to abide by the constitution and by-laws of their local associations with whom they voluntarily choose to affiliate. They also agree to abide by all of the rules and regulations of the AHSAA with whom they voluntarily choose to affiliate during the current registration year.

They also understand that they are independent agents choosing to affiliate with their local associations and the AHSAA. Therefore, they release their local association officers and the AHSAA staff from any liability or responsibility for any damage or injury incurred by them to themselves or anyone else because of their officiating during the current registration year.

Finally, they understand that all taxes due on the income collected by them because of their officiating are their responsibility to file and not the responsibility of their local association or the AHSAA.

The mileage to the contracted schools from the local association will be used as set by the local association when they determine a centralized point. This centralized point will be based on the location of the local association's contracted schools. If one or more schools dispute this centralized site as determined by the local association, upon written request, the AHSAA will make the determination of the centralized site to be used by that local association. All centralized sites as determined by the local officials associations will be sent to the AHSAA prior to August 1st for the Fall Sports, October 1st for the Winter Sports, and January 1st for the Spring Sports for approval. The online program will then be used to determine the approved mileage. The mileage rate will be the same as used by the State Department of Education.
